ABOUT THE ARTIST

Valentina is an Italo-Peruvian artist based in London whose work is shaped by a life lived across cultures.

Having studied and worked in Canada, the UAE and the UK, she draws inspiration from her Peruvian heritage, blending vibrant colours, symbolism, and storytelling through acrylics and markers.

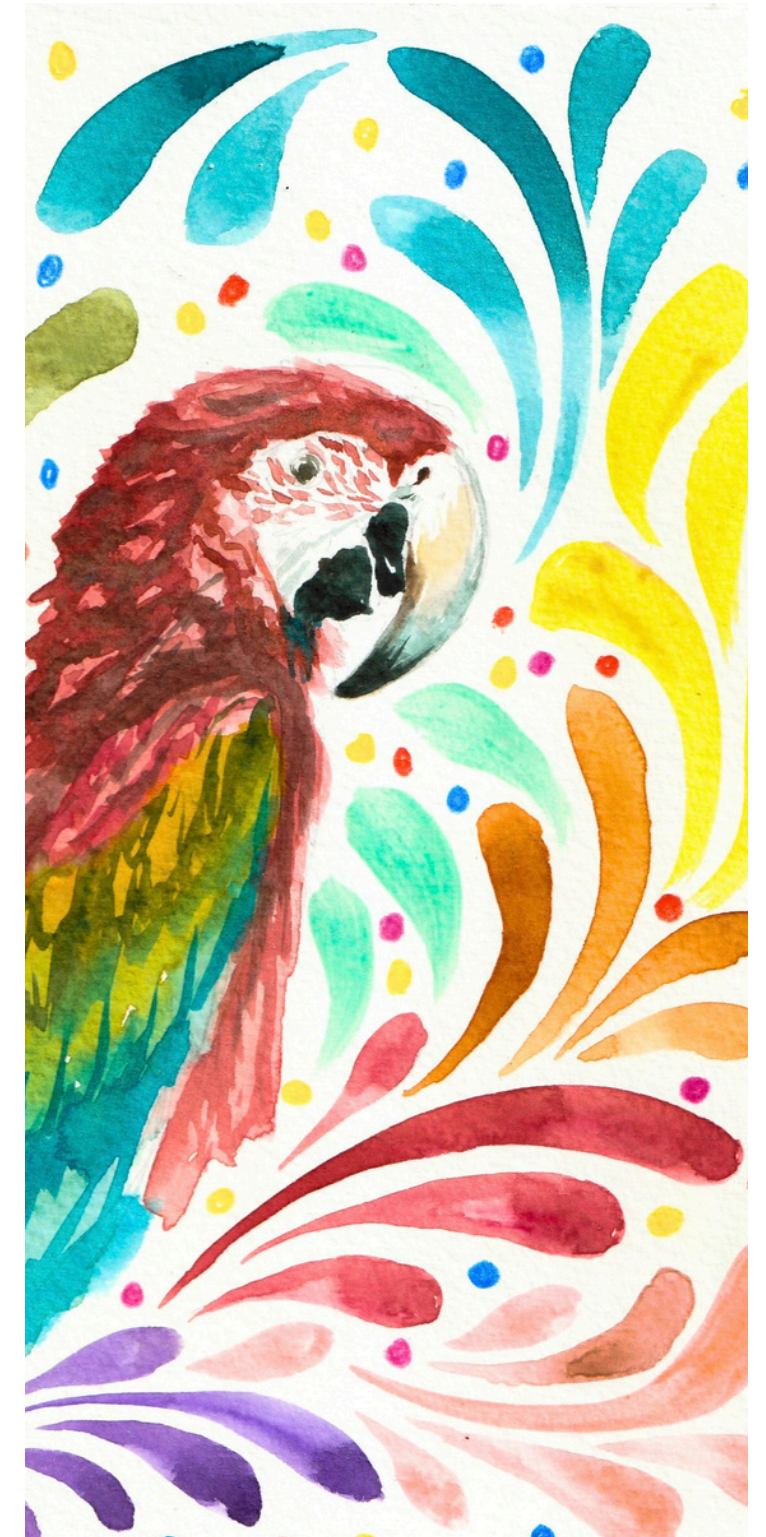

Her practice explores identity, memory, and cultural connection through a contemporary lens. Through her work, she aims to celebrate and share the richness of Peruvian culture with UK audiences while fostering greater appreciation and visibility for Latin American art and traditions
